“A Community of Faith Rooted in Word and Sacrament, In Education and Service”

Dear St. John’s Parishioner/s,

I happily present to you this year’s Ministry Guide Book and Directory for the year 2016. Again, you will be amazed how many ministries and organizations we have here at St. John’s. There is literally something for everyone in our parish to experience, to do, and to enjoy. We are truly a blessed community and we are still growing strong. Young families bring energy and continued life and a bright future to the parish, and our venerable families share the wisdom of time and keep us grounded in the traditions of our beginnings of only 42 years ago. Take a good look at the pages in this book and see what jumps off the page at first sight. What new things did you discover about St. John’s Parish? What organization or ministry has your name on it? Did you recognize some of the names of fellow parishioners associated with those ministries? And you thought joining St. John’s Church only meant going to Mass on Sunday, getting envelopes, receiving an occasional letter from the pastor, and filling out a census form? Perhaps you will receive a phone call from a parishioner or ministry lead inviting you to participate on a particular council, committee or ministry - but don’t wait for that phone call - jump right in yourself now and get involved. It will be the best contact you can make and I guarantee you will feel part of your parish community. On behalf of the parish staff and all the members of our parish family, know that we are truly blessed that you have made St. John’s your spiritual home.

Your Brother in the Lord,

Rev. Philip N. O’Kennedy, Pastor

About the Cover

St. John the Baptist Day Chapel was included in the new parish hall design, which was completed in 2011. The Architect, Steve Schneider, designed the chapel to look like a miniature version of the main sanctuary to include the altar; ambo; presider's chair and tabernacle table. It was Fr. Phil O' Kennedy's wish to have an Adoration Chapel to offer, anyone who wishes, a way to prayerfully sit before the Blessed Sacrament, exposed in a Monstrance from Spain, without being disturbed by the daily activities occurring in the church.

Resting on each side of the altar are two traditional statues of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Alongside the statues are 12 relics, which were donated by a parishioner. Confessionals are located in the back of chapel and were designed so the Act of Contrition would always be visible in a "low light".

The Chapel is open daily for Adoration, please come and devote time to the Lord!

Please contact the parish office to request such a letter.

Marriages

Engaged couples desiring to be married at St. John's should contact our Wedding Coordinator at least six months prior to the anticipated wedding date. Mass Intentions

Mass intentions are available for parish weekday Masses for the repose of the soul of a deceased loved one or on the occasion of a serious illness. Reserving a Room

As parishioners of St. John's, we are committed to being good stewards of our facilities, keeping them in a well-maintained condition and welcoming our families to use these facilities to carry out our mission of supporting the Catholic faith. Together we take care of our beautiful buildings and church grounds. Help us by sharing in our commitment of Stewardship. The use of St. John's facilities is restricted to appropriate Church and School-related activities. The Parish Hall is available to rent for Wedding and Anniversary celebrations. Please call the parish office to inquire.

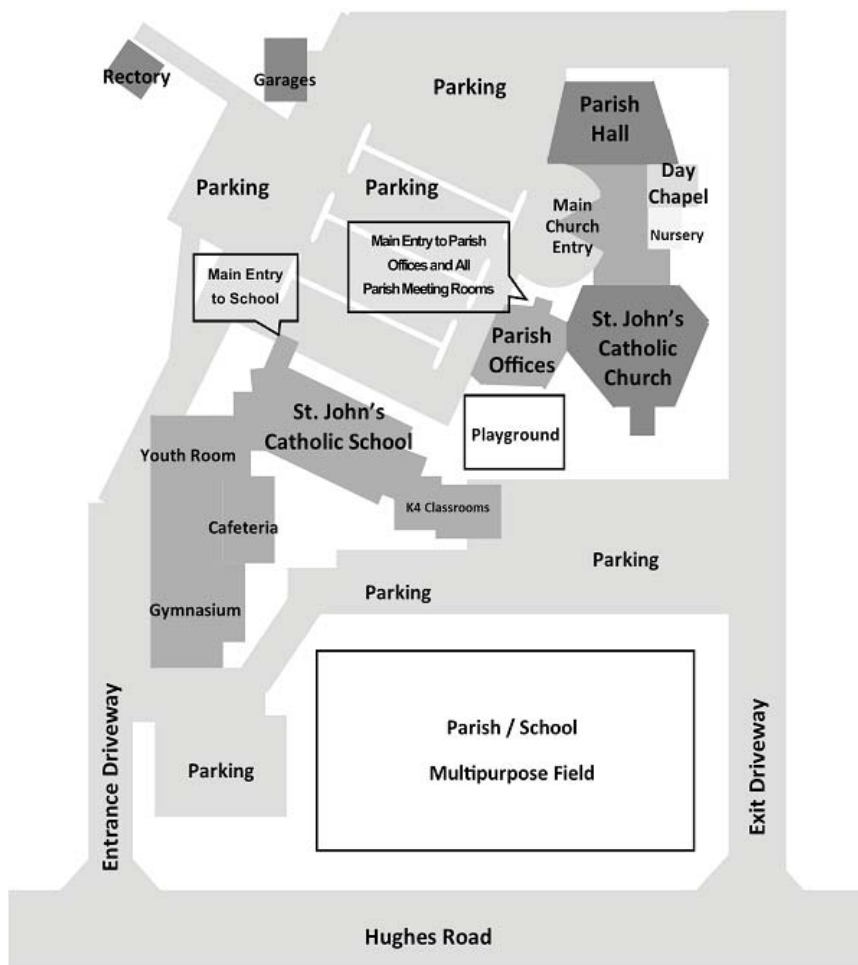

Prayer Requests

St. John's publishes a list in the bulletin each week of all those who are ill and have requested our prayers. If you would like to add your name or the name of a loved one to this list, please contact the Parish office. We cannot publish any names without family consent.

Bulletin Notices

The weekly bulletin, along with our weekly eNews Newsletter, are our primary means of parish communications. Bulletin space is limited to parish and ministry events. Items to be considered for publication in the bulletin can be submitted by email to parishoffice@stjohnbchurch.com. Notices must be submitted no later than noon on Friday the week before they are to appear. Announcements are generally limited to twice per event and may be edited for space.
